

Please do not take any steps to weaken the telephone privacy law in the state of Indiana. Since this law was implemented, the number of unsolicited nuisance telemarketing calls I have received has dropped to practically zero. Legitimate business calls have not been affected by the law. Please uphold it. Thank you.